Birthday Assistant - Run a Workflow

The Birthday Assistant will now trigger a Workflow. This will allow you to do more with the Birthday Assistant, including changing the time of the email sending, have multiple emails go out, etc.

New Email Template Sort Option

When you click to add an email template, the email templates are currently sorted alphabetically. You will not have the option to change the sort to a date sort. This will allow the newest templates you add to show first. If you want the sort to be this way by default, let me know and I can change it for your users, otherwise, it is optional per session.

New Look to the Rolodex

We've simplified the look of the Rolodex. It is just a little sleeker. Check it out...
